ABOUT US

The Afghanistan Cricket Board (ACB) is the official governing body responsible for managing all cricketing affairs in Afghanistan. As a Full Member of the International Cricket Council (ICC), ACB organizes both domestic and international cricket events. While our domestic matches are held across Afghanistan, international fixtures are conducted in venues such as the UAE and India.

scheduled for September 6.

This year's tournament will showcase national-level players as well as outstanding domestic talents, which will provide the Afghanistan Cricket Board with the opportunity to offer valuable exposure and excellent playing prospects for young and emerging cricketers.

Super Cola Beverages Manufacturing Company has secured the title sponsorship rights for the event, and will promote their XBull Energy brand. As a crucial part of Afghanistan's domestic cricket structure, the Regional List A Tournament plays a significant role in the development of players and the growth of cricket in the country.
